Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-28, 65-71, drawn to method of dispensing dry powders to a receiving member, classified in class 141, subclass 1, or class 222, subclass 1.
 - II. Claims 29-54, 72, and 73, drawn to a dry powder dispensing system, classified in class 141, subclass 18.
 - III. Claims 55-64, drawn to a computer program for operating a dry powder processing and/or dispensing system, classified in class 700, subclass 231.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case, the dispensing system can be use to dispense a single type of dry powder. In this case, the method of dispensing dry powder can be practice by various dispensing systems according to different embodiments exemplified in the specification.
3. Inventions II and III are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and

(2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because at least claim 44 serves as evidence that the particular of the subcombination is not necessary for the patentability of the combination. The subcombination has separate utility such as for use in a dispensing system without a hopper or in a dispensing system with a force gas flow.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I, the embodiment represented by Figure 1A;

Species II, the embodiment represented by Figure 5A;

Species III, the embodiment represented by Figure 5B;

Species IV, the embodiment represented by Figure 6;

Species V, the embodiment represented by Figure 7;

Species VI, the embodiment represented by Figure 9;

Species VII, the embodiment represented by Figure 10B;

Species VIII, the embodiment represented by Figure 13;

Species IX, the embodiment represented by Figure 17A.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
